e-Payments

e-Filing of cases requires the option for electronic payment of fees which includes court fees, fines and penalties which are directly payable to the Consolidated Fund. Online payment of court fees, fines, penalties and judicial deposits has been initiated through <https://pay.ecourts.gov.in> from 14th August 2018. Introduction of electronic collection of court fees and other civil payments requires appropriate amendments in the existing Court Fees Act enacted by the various State Governments besides opening a bank account in a Nationalized Bank or in other bank suitable to receive, hold and disburse such payments electronically.

DoJ has taken up the matter with Chief Secretaries and Registrar General of High Courts to expedite the enactment / modification in existing enactment to enable epayment of court fees. The eCommittee of the Supreme Court has also proposed that since the existing Court Fees Act provides for refunds, administrative instructions may be issued by High Courts to allow one-time lump sum deposit as court fees which can be adjusted and balance refunded at the end of the proceedings in the same manner that court fees in respect of proceedings withdrawn or compromise are refunded in part.

A total of 22 High Courts have implemented ePayments in their respective jurisdictions whereas the Court Fees Act has been amended in 24 High Courts till 31.08.2024.

The ePayments can be enabled through an electronic payment process like SBI ePay, GRAS, e-GRAS, JeGRAS, HimKosh etc. Apart from payments being made through credit / debit cards and bank transfers, other applications like BHIM App, RuPay etc. can also be leveraged along with private wallets like Paytm, Google Pay etc.

Traffic Fines in Telangana

The rapid pace of development in Telangana has resulted in an influx of people from across the country, subsequently contributing to an increased number of vehicles plying on roads.

Unfortunately, this surge has resulted in traffic violations and mishaps, as indicated by a report by the Ministry of Road Transport and Highways.

According to the report, between 2018 and 2022, road fatalities jumped 45.8% in Telangana, with two-wheeler riders bearing the worst of the brunt. These jarring statistics reveal the importance of strengthening traffic rules in Telangana (TS).

The objective of TS traffic fines and rules is to mitigate road accidents and reduce fatalities to make roads safer. However, while the law authorities can make the rules, the roads can only become safer if individuals cautiously abide by them.

Let's acquaint ourselves with RTO rules in Telangana so you can prevent Telangana traffic fines and play your role in making the roads safer.

New Traffic Rules in Telangana

Acquainting yourself with updated RTO rules in Telangana can prevent incurring Telangana traffic fines and, in turn, keep the roads safer. Let's take a look at the revised traffic rules in Telangana:

Four-Wheeler Traffic Rules in Telangana

Fasten your seatbelt: When driving a car, the driver and passenger must fasten the seatbelt. In the unfortunate event of a crash, being buckled up secures you inside your vehicle as opposed to being completely ejected, which is almost always deadly. Not following this rule will result in a fine in Telangana.

Don't use a mobile phone when driving: Being alert when you are driving helps you counter mishaps and gain control over the situation. So, if caught driving while using a phone, you will incur a fine in Telangana. It is best that you either stop on the side if you want to use your phone or use a hands-free device.

Overspeeding: A staggering 71.2% of the fatalities in Telangana happened because of overspeeding. Not only will driving above the speed limit lead to a hefty fine, but it is also highly dangerous for yourself and other riders and drivers on the road.

Follow lane discipline: Sudden or extreme lane changes can cause severe accidents. Therefore, drivers must be aware of the lane-changing discipline. You will get a challan for violating this rule in Telangana.

Have a valid driving licence: Driving without a licence fine in Telangana can hurt your pocket. Not only should drivers possess a valid driver's licence, but their licence should apply to their vehicle class.

Park in delegated spots: Parking your vehicle in no-parking spots or on public roads can inconvenience others and will incur a no-parking fine in Telangana. You must park your vehicle responsibly such that it does not obstruct the road or put others in danger. This will help you avoid the inconvenience of having to answer for your illegally parked vehicle and avoid the hassle of a no-parking fine in Telangana.

Don't drive when inebriated: When you are under the influence of alcohol or drugs, you lack alertness in perceiving and reacting to a danger on the road. Alcohol also impairs your ability to acknowledge distance between objects or effectively recover from glare. For these reasons and more, you will incur a drink-and-drive fine in Telangana if you drive inebriated. It is important to note, however, that the drink-and-drive fine in Telangana is more for the safety of the citizens.

Two-Wheeler Traffic Rules in Telangana

Wear a helmet: Instead of worrying about the fine for not wearing a helmet in Telangana, it is important to consider the repercussions of riding without a helmet. Riding without a helmet exposes you to head or brain injuries that can be fatal. It is important to secure your journeys with a helmet. So, even if you incur a small fine for not wearing a helmet in Telangana, remember that you may pay a higher price for neglecting your safety.

No more than two people on the bike: Riders tend to think they can ride triple-seat for short distances but we don't realise that even for these short distances, you can compromise the vehicle-control abilities that can result in accidents. To prevent these instances, the Telangana state government levies a fine if more than two persons are riding a two-wheeler.

Don't use your phone when riding: Just as it is when driving a car, distracted riding is also life-threatening on the road. Two-wheeler riders are at a greater threat because they are more vulnerable and exposed when compared to cars.

Don't speed: Indulging in aggressive driving, speeding, or racing not only compromises the safety of the rider but also other drivers and pedestrians. It can also lead to fatal accidents. So, it is advised to ride well within the speed limit, and for a violation of this rule, you will be fined in Telangana.

Carry the necessary documents: Every rider is expected to have a valid driving licence, PUC certificate, and insurance with them while riding. The authorities may ask you to present you with the documents at any point, and not having them can lead to hefty fines.

Updated Telangana Fine List

To legally ride or drive in Telangana, every individual needs to adhere to the traffic rules. Neglecting any of the rules can result in heavy fines by the authorities. With the increased number of vehicles on the roads, traffic violations have also gone up and these traffic fines are an attempt to discourage breaking the law while on the road.

Here is a list of the updated Telangana traffic fines so riders and drivers are better acquainted with the law:

The aforementioned TS traffic fine list came into effect to raise awareness about and instil the importance of abiding by traffic rules.

Imposing E-Challan in Telangana

Traffic fines in Telangana have gone digital, which enables drivers to pay off their fines online. The e-challan system uses CCTV cameras to capture traffic violations.

It is important to note that if the fine is not cleared within 60 days of issuing, additional penalties will be levied on the offender. In extreme cases, the offender may even be asked to appear in court. Therefore, it is essential to be aware of the e-challan validity period.

How to Pay Telangana Traffic Fine

For the online method, the individual can pay their fine either through the official Parivahan website, the Paytm app, or the Telangana State Police website.
